

The Executive Committee of the FCCLA National Board of Directors approved two temporary membership package options for the 2021-2022 school year. The temporary membership packages are intended to be part of the economic recovery support for Family and Consumer Sciences educators and students. Any permanent changes to national affiliation dues will require a Bylaw amendment voted on by the FCCLA membership.

The Idaho Association Board of Directors has approved the offering of the two temporary membership packages.

Chapters will be able to opt-in to a temporary membership package when affiliation opens on August 1, 2021.

The approved membership packages are as follows:

Up to 25 Chapter Package

Package price: $ 570.00 [$395 National Dues + $175 State Dues for 25]

Package benefits include:

- 25 student member national affiliations
